Dear Reading Community Member,

The Reading Superior Officers Association in Collaboration with the Reading Police Patrolman's Association is now conducting it's annual fundraising appeal and we need your help. It should be noted that these Associations have again decided to raise funds through a direct mail appeal to Reading residents and businesses. We are sending out this appeal jointly, so residents will receive only one mailing. You will not receive a telephone call or in person solicitation. Solely volunteer members of both Associations are conducting this appeal and 100% of your contribution will go directly to your local police associations.

We have had numerous inquiries over the past few years in reference to police affiliated organizations asking for donations from Reading residents since 9-11-01. Sadly, some of these organizations are not forthright in their stated intentions. We encourage you to call us before you donate to any police related organization if you have any doubts or need our verification as to their validity.

The Reading Police Associations seek to further develop improved relations between the community and its police. This is the ONLY appeal that you will receive from the Reading Police Department Associations.

Please enclose your donation, large or small, in the envelope provided. Make your check payable to "Reading Police Department Associations." We ask you to give as much as you possibly can so that we may continue our efforts at improving community relations as well as give the Associations the financial support they need in order to improve local law enforcement and the working conditions of the police officers here in Reading.

We have enclosed an informational flyer on identity fraud. Identity Fraud is a fast growing crime victimizing many Americans, from large cities to small towns. Should this happen to you, this flyer will assist you in taking the necessary steps to end the cycle and redeem your good name and credit.

All the members of both Reading Police Associations join in thanking you for your continued support and generosity.

Very Truly Yours,

Sergeant Patrick M. O'Brien
President Superior Officer's Association

Officer Chris Picco
President Patrolman's Association
